4. COMMUNICATION

The Landlord and Tenant agree that all communications which may or must be made under the Act and in relation to this Agreement, including notices to be served by one party on the other will be made in writing using:

- hard copy by personal delivery or recorded delivery; or
- the email addresses set out in clauses [2 or 3] and 1].

For communication by email it is essential that the Landlord and Tenant(s) consider carefully whether this option is suitable for them. It should be noted that all notices will be sent by email, which includes important documents such as a rent-increase notice and a notice to leave the Let Property.

To ensure all emails can be received and read in good time the Landlord(s) and Tenant(s) agree to inform each other as soon as possible of any new email address which is to be used instead of the email address notified in this Agreement.

If sending a document electronically or by recorded delivery post, the document will be regarded as having been received 48 hours after it was sent, unless the receiving party can provide proof that he or she received it later than this. This extra delivery time should be factored into any required notice period.

5. DETAILS OF THE LET PROPERTY

Address: «Property Address»
("the Let Property")

Type of property: «Property type»

The Let Property is not located in a rent pressure zone.

If Scottish Ministers have designated the area that the Let Property is located in as a rent pressure zone, there will be a cap on the amount that the rent can be increased. You can check whether the Let Property shown above is located in a rent pressure zone on the Scottish Government's website <https://www.mygov.scot/rent-pressure-zone-checker/>

The Let Property is not a House in Multiple Occupation (HMO).

HMO 24-hour contact number:

HMO licence expiry date:

6. START DATE OF THE TENANCY

The private residential tenancy will start on: «TenancyStartDate»
("the start date of the tenancy")

7. OCCUPATION AND USE OF THE LET PROPERTY

The Tenant agrees to continue to occupy the Let Property as his or her home and must obtain the Landlord's written permission before carrying out any trade, business or profession there.

8. RENT

The rent is «TenancyAmount» per calendar month payable by the Tenant by standing order to AVJ Homes Ltd in advance so as to be received on the «TenancyPaymentDay» of each month commencing on «TenancyFirstRentDueDate».

9. RENT RECEIPTS

Where any payment of rent is made in cash, the Landlord must provide the Tenant with a dated written receipt for the payment showing the amount paid, and either (as the case may be) the amount which remains outstanding, or confirmation that no further amount remains outstanding.

10. RENT INCREASE

The rent cannot be increased more than once in any twelve month period and the Landlord must give the Tenant at least three months' notice before any increase can take place. In order to increase the rent, the Landlord must give the Tenant a rent-increase notice of the content of which is set out in 'The Private Residential Tenancies (Prescribed Notices and Forms) (Scotland) Regulations 2017'. The notice will be sent using the communication method agreed in the 'Communication' clause above.

Within 21 days of receiving a rent-increase notice, the Tenant can refer the increase to a rent officer for adjudication if he or she considers that the rent increase amount is unreasonable, unless the property is located in a rent pressure zone (RPZ). Before submitting a referral to a rent officer for rent adjudication, the Tenant must complete Part 3 of the rent-increase notice and return it to his or her Landlord to notify the Landlord of his or her intention to make a referral to a rent officer. Failure to return Part 3 to the Landlord will mean that the rent increase will take effect from the date proposed in the notice.

If the Let property is located within a rent pressure zone, the Tenant cannot refer a rent increase to a rent officer as Scottish Ministers will have set a cap on the maximum amount the rent can be increased.

11. DEPOSIT

The Landlord must lodge any deposit they receive with a tenancy deposit scheme within 30 working days of the start date of the tenancy

A tenancy deposit scheme is an independent third-party scheme approved by the Scottish Ministers to hold and protect a deposit until it is due to be repaid.

At the start date of the tenancy or before, a deposit of «TenancyDeposit» will be paid by the Tenant to the Landlord. The Landlord will issue a receipt for the deposit to the Tenant. No interest shall be paid by the Landlord to the Tenant for the deposit.

By law, the deposit amount cannot exceed the equivalent of two months' rent and cannot include any premiums. For example, charging for an administration fee or taking a holding fee (regardless of whether or not the holding fee is refundable).

The scheme administrator is (SAFE DEPOSIT SCOTLAND) their contact details are:

SafeDeposits Scotland
Lower Ground
250 West George Street
Glasgow
G2 4QY

Where it is provided in this Agreement that the Tenant is responsible for a particular cost or to do any particular thing and the Tenant fails to meet that cost, or the Landlord carries out work or performs any other obligation for which the Tenant is responsible, the Landlord can apply for reasonable costs to be deducted from any deposit paid by the Tenant. This would include cases where a tenant has not paid all of the rent payable, any amount in respect of one-off services, or unpaid utility bills, or a sum in relation to breakages or cleaning. At the end of the tenancy the Landlord should ask the tenancy deposit scheme to release the deposit and the amounts payable to each party. If the Tenant disagrees with the amount the scheme administrator will provide a dispute resolution mechanism.

When the Tenant owes the Landlord an amount greater than the amount held by the tenancy deposit scheme, the Tenant will remain liable for these costs, and the Landlord may take action to recover the difference from the Tenant.

Deposit deductions

The Landlord will be entitled to make deductions from the deposit in relation to the following:-

- (i) Any damage caused, to the Let Property, fixtures and fittings or any furniture provided as part of the Agreement with the exception of fair wear and tear;*
- (ii) Any costs incurred in replacing any items detailed on the ingoing inventory which have been lost or broken, or have disappeared during the Agreement;*
- (iii) Any costs incurred in carrying out any redecoration work in the Let Property where required due to damage caused by the Tenant and/or due to the Tenant having carried out redecoration work without the prior written consent of the Landlord;*
- (iv) Any costs incurred in bringing the garden back to an acceptable standard at the termination of the Agreement;*
- (v) Any interest incurred due to the Tenant's late payments of rent or administrative or bank charges incurred by cheques not being met;*

- (vi) Any unpaid bills including bills for utility services and local authority taxes;
- (vii) Any cleaning/removal charges arising from the Let Property not being properly maintained;
- (viii) Any amounts of rent, which remain unpaid;
- (ix) Any other costs arising from the Tenant's failure to fulfil the conditions of this Agreement.

More information can be found in the Tenancy Deposit Schemes (Scotland) Regulations 2011. (<http://www.legislation.gov.uk/ssi/2011/176/contents/made>)

12. SUBLETTING AND ASSIGNATION

Unless the Tenant has received prior written permission from the Landlord, the Tenant must not:

- sublet the Let Property (or any part of it),
- take in a lodger,
- assign the Tenant's interest in the Let Property (or any part of it) or
- otherwise part with, or give up to another person possession of the Let Property (or any part of it).

13. NOTIFICATION ABOUT OTHER RESIDENTS

If a person aged 16 or over (who is not a joint tenant) occupies the Let Property with the Tenant as that person's only or principal home, the Tenant must tell the Landlord in writing that person's name and relationship to the Tenant.

If that person subsequently leaves the Let Property the Tenant must tell the Landlord.

The Tenant will take reasonable care to ensure that anyone living with them does not do anything that would be a breach of this Agreement if they were the Tenant. If they do, the Tenant will be treated as being responsible for any such action and will be liable for the cost of any repairs, renewals or replacement of items where required.

When allowing a person to occupy the Let Property with the Tenant as that person's only or principal home, the Tenant must ensure that the Let Property does not become an unlicensed "house in multiple occupation" (HMO)

The Tenant will be liable for reasonable costs and expenses, including if applicable, legal costs and fines, payable by the Landlord or his or her Agent as a result of the accommodation being, as a consequence of the Tenant's breach, deemed an unlicensed or unregistered "house in multiple occupation".

14. OVERCROWDING

The number of people who may live in a Let Property depends on the number and size of the rooms, and the age, gender and relationships of the people. Living rooms and bedrooms are counted as rooms, but not the kitchen or bathroom.

The Tenant must not allow the Let Property to become overcrowded. If the Let Property does become overcrowded, the Landlord can take action to evict the Tenant as the Tenant has breached this term of this Agreement.

15. INSURANCE

The Landlord is responsible for paying premiums for any insurance of the building and contents belonging to him or her, such as those items included in the property inventory. The Landlord will have no liability to insure any items belonging to the Tenant.

The Tenant is responsible for arranging any contents insurance which the Tenant requires for his or her own belongings. The Tenant's belongings may include personal effects, foodstuffs and consumables, belongings, and any other contents brought in to the Let Property by the Tenant.

16. ABSENCES

The Tenant agrees to tell the Landlord if he or she is to be absent from the Let Property for any reason for a period of more than 14 days. The Tenant must take such measures as the Landlord may reasonably require to secure the Let Property prior to such absence and take appropriate remedial measures to meet the 'Reasonable Care' section below.

17. REASONABLE CARE

The Tenant agrees to take reasonable care of the Let Property and any common parts, and in particular agrees to take all reasonable steps to:

- keep the Let Property adequately ventilated and heated;
- not bring any hazardous or combustible goods or material into the Let Property, notwithstanding the normal and safe storage of petroleum and gas for garden appliances (mowers etc.), barbecues or other commonly used household goods or appliances;
- not put any damage to oil, grease or other harmful or corrosive substance into the washing or sanitary appliances or drains;
- prevent water pipes freezing in cold weather;
- avoid damage to the Let Property or neighbouring properties by way of fire or flooding;
- ensure that the Let Property and its fixtures and fittings are kept clean during the tenancy;
- not interfere with the smoke detectors, carbon monoxide detectors, heat detectors or the fire alarm system;
- not interfere with door closer mechanisms.
- The Tenant undertakes to pay for the cleaning or washing of carpets, curtains, upholstery and loose covers, bedding, blankets and for the washing of all linen (if any) which shall have been soiled during the tenancy and which at the termination of the tenancy may, in the opinion of the landlord require to be washed or cleaned.

18. THE REPAIRING STANDARD etc. AND OTHER INFORMATION

THE REPAIRING STANDARD

The Landlord is responsible for ensuring that the Let Property meets the Repairing Standard.

The Landlord must carry out a pre-tenancy check of the Let Property to identify work required to meet the Repairing Standard (described below) and notify the Tenant of any such work. The Landlord also has a duty to repair and maintain the Let Property from the start date of the tenancy and throughout the tenancy. This includes a duty to make good any damage caused by doing this work. On becoming aware of a defect, the Landlord must complete the work within a reasonable time.

A privately rented Let Property must meet the Repairing Standard as follows:

- The Let Property must be wind and water tight and in all other respects reasonably fit for people to live in.
- The structure and exterior (including drains, gutters and external pipes) must be in a reasonable state of repair and in proper working order.
- Installations for supplying water, gas and electricity and for sanitation, space heating and heating water must be in a reasonable state of repair and in proper working order.
- Any fixtures, fittings and appliances that the Landlord provides under the tenancy must be in a reasonable state of repair and in proper working order.
- Any furnishings that the Landlord provides under the tenancy must be capable of being used safely for the purpose for which they are designed.
- The Let Property must have a satisfactory way of detecting fires and for giving warning in the event of a fire or suspected fire<sup>1</sup>.
- The Let Property must have a satisfactory way of giving warning if there is a hazardous concentration of carbon monoxide gas<sup>2</sup>.

More detail on the Repairing Standard is available in the Easy Read Notes for the Scottish Government Model Private Residential Tenancy Agreement, or on the Scottish Government website. If a Tenant believes that the Landlord has failed to ensure that the Let Property meets the Repairing Standard at all times during the tenancy, he or she should discuss this with the Landlord in the first instance. If the Landlord does not rectify the problem within a reasonable time, the Tenant has the right to apply to the First-tier Tribunal for Scotland Housing and Property Chamber (the Tribunal). The Tribunal may reject the application; consider whether the problem can be resolved by the Tenant and Landlord (for example, by agreeing to meet); consider the application; or reject the case. The Tribunal has the power to require a Landlord to carry out work necessary to meet the Repairing Standard.

The Repairing Standard does not cover work for which the Tenant is responsible due to his or her duty to use the Let Property in a proper manner; nor does it cover the repair or maintenance of anything that the Tenant is entitled to remove from the Let Property.

Structure & Exterior:

The Landlord is responsible (together with any other owners of common parts of the building in which the accommodation is situated, if appropriate) for keeping in repair the structure and exterior of the accommodation.

Gas Safety:

The Landlord must ensure that there is an annual Gas safety check on all pipework and appliances carried out by a Gas Safe registered engineer. The Tenant must be given a copy of the Landlord's gas safety certificate. The Landlord must keep certificates for at least 2 years. The Gas Safety (Installation and use) Regulations 1998 places duties on Tenants to report any defects with gas pipework or gas appliances that they are aware of to the Landlord. Tenants are forbidden to use appliances that have been deemed unsafe by a gas contractor.

The Landlord must also ensure that a carbon monoxide detector is installed where there is a fixed carbon-fuelled appliance (excluding an appliance used solely for cooking) or where a fixed carbon-fuelled appliance is situated in an inter-connected space such as a garage. A carbon monoxide detector is also required in the bedrooms and main living room if a flue from a carbon-fuelled appliance passes through the room. "Carbon-fuelled" includes wood, coal and oil as well as gas.

Electrical Safety:

The Landlord must ensure that an electrical safety inspection is carried out at least every five years consisting of an Electrical Installation Condition Report (EICR) and Portable Appliance Testing (PAT) or equivalent provided by the Landlord. The EICR must be completed by a suitably qualified person.

The Tenant must be given a copy of the EICR and PAT.

Smoke Detectors:

The Landlord must ensure that mains powered smoke alarms are installed in (i) the room which is frequently used by the occupants for general daytime living purposes and (ii) every circulation space such as hallways or landings, there must also be a heat alarm in the kitchen. All alarms should be interlinked.

Installations:

The Landlord will keep in repair and in proper working order the installations in the Let Property for the supply of water, gas, electricity, sanitation, space heating and water heating (with the exception of those installed by the Tenant or which the Tenant is entitled to repair).

Energy Performance Certificate (EPC):

A valid EPC (not more than 10 years old) must be given to the Tenant at the start date of tenancy, unless the Tenant is renting a room with shared access to a kitchen, bathroom and living area.

Furnishings:

Landlords should ensure that all upholstered furniture provided complies with the Furniture and Furnishings (Fire Safety) Regulations 1988 as amended, as evidenced by the permanent labelling.

Defective Fixtures and Fittings:

All fixtures and fittings provided by the Landlord in the Let Property should be in a reasonable state of repair and in proper working order. The Landlord will repair or replace any of the fixtures, fittings or furnishings supplied which become defective and will do so within a reasonable period of time. Nothing contained in this Agreement makes the Landlord responsible for repairing damage caused wilfully or negligently by the Tenant, anyone living with the Tenant or an invited visitor to the Let Property.

REPAIR TIMETABLE

The Tenant undertakes to notify the Landlord as soon as is reasonably practicable of the need for any repair or emergency. The Landlord is responsible for carrying out necessary repairs as soon as is reasonably practicable after having been notified of the need to do so.

The Tenant must allow the Landlord reasonable access to the Let Property to enable the Landlord to fulfil their duties under the repairing standard (see the clause on 'Access for Repairs').

PAYMENT FOR REPAIRS

The Tenant will be liable for the cost of repairs where the cause of them is attributable to his or her fault or negligence, that of any person residing with him or her, or any guest of his or hers.

INFORMATION

In addition to this Agreement, the Landlord must provide the Tenant:-

- gas safety certificate;
- electrical safety inspection reports (EICR and PAT);
- energy performance certificate (unless the Tenant is renting a room with shared access to a kitchen, through a living area).

19. LEGIONELLA

At the start of the tenancy and throughout, the Landlord must take reasonable steps to assess any risk from exposure to legionella to ensure the safety of the Tenant in the Let Property.

20. ACCESS FOR REPAIRS, INSPECTIONS AND VALUATIONS

The Landlord must provide reasonable access to the Let Property for an authorised purpose where the Tenant has been given at least 48 hours' notice, or access is required urgently. Authorised purposes are carrying out work in the Let Property which the Landlord is required to or is allowed to, either by law, under the terms of this Agreement, or any other agreement between the Landlord and the Tenant; inspecting the Let Property to see if any such work is needed; and carrying out a valuation of the Let Property. The right of access also covers access by others such as a contractor or tradesman hired by the Landlord.

There is nothing to stop the Tenant and Landlord from mutually agreeing more generous rights of access if both parties want to resolve a non-urgent problem more promptly.

The Landlord has no right to use retained keys to enter the Let Property without the Tenant's permission, except in an emergency.

Failure to give us access, where the appointment has been made would lead to call out charges. If tenant wants to cancel an appointment then minimum 24 hours notice is required

If contractor fails to get access to carry out repairs/safeties after making an appointment then tenant will be liable for an invoice related to call out charges.

21. RESPECT FOR OTHERS

The Tenant, those living with him/her, and his/her visitors must not engage in antisocial behaviour to another person. A person includes anyone in the Let Property, a neighbour, visitor, the Landlord, Agent or contractor.

“Antisocial behaviour” means behaving in a way which causes or is likely to cause, alarm, distress, nuisance or annoyance to any person which amounts to harassment of any person. Harassment of a person includes causing the person alarm or distress. Antisocial behaviour includes such.

In particular, the Tenant, those living with him/her, and his/her visitors must not:

- make excessive noise. This includes, but is not limited to, the use of televisions, CD players, digital music players, radios and musical instruments and DIY and power tools;
- fail to control pets properly or allow them to cause damage to other people’s property;
- allow visitors to the Let Property to be noisy or disruptive;
- vandalise or damage the Let Property or any part of the common parts or neighbourhood;
- leave rubbish either in unauthorised areas or at inappropriate times;
- allow any other person (including children) living in or using the property to cause a nuisance or annoyance to other people by failing to take reasonable steps to prevent this;
- harass any other Tenant, member of his/her household, visitors, neighbours, family members of the Landlord or employees of the Landlord or Agent or any other person or persons in the house, or neighbourhood, for whatever reason. This includes behaviour due to that person’s race, colour or ethnic origin, nationality, gender, sexuality, disability, age, religion or other belief, or other status;

In addition, the Tenant, those living with him/her, and his/her visitors must not engage in the following unlawful activities:

- use or carry offensive weapons;
- use, sell, cultivate or supply unlawful drugs or sell alcohol;
- store or bring onto the premises any type of unlicensed firearm or firearm ammunition including any replica or decommissioned firearms.
- use the Let Property or allow it to be used, for illegal or immoral purposes;
- threaten or assault any other Tenant, member of his/her household, visitors, neighbours, family members of the Landlord or employees of the Landlord or Agent, or any other person or persons in the house, or neighbourhood, for whatever reason.

The particular prohibitions on behaviour listed above do not in any way restrict the general responsibilities of the Tenant.

22. EQUALITY REQUIREMENTS:

Under the Equality Act 2010, the Landlord must not unlawfully discriminate against the Tenant or prospective Tenant on the basis of their disability, sex, gender reassignment, pregnancy or maternity, race, religion or belief or sexual orientation.

23. DATA PROTECTION

The Landlord must comply with the requirements of the Data Protection Laws to ensure that the Tenant's personal information is held securely and only lawfully disclosed.

"Data Protection Laws": any law, statute, subordinate legislation, regulation, order, mandatory guidance or code of practice, judgment or decision of a court of law, or directives or requirements of any regulatory body which relates to the protection of individuals with regard to the processing of Personal Data to which a Party is subject including the Data Protection Act 2018 and any statute, modification or re-enactment thereof and the GDPR. "GDPR" means the General Data Protection Regulation (EU) 2016/679 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 27 April 2016 on the protection of natural persons with regard to the processing of personal data and on the free movement of such data, and repealing Directive 95/46/EC.

24. ENDING THE TENANCY

This Tenancy may be ended by:

- The Tenant giving notice to the Landlord
  - The Tenant giving the Landlord at least 28 days notice in writing to terminate the tenancy or an earlier date if the Landlord is content to waive the minimum 28 days notice period. Where the Landlord agrees to waive the notice period, his or her tenancy agreement must be in writing. The tenancy will come to an end on the date specified in the notice or, where appropriate, the earlier date agreed between the Tenant and Landlord. To end a joint tenancy, all the Joint Tenants must agree to end the tenancy. A Joint Tenant cannot terminate the joint tenancy on behalf of all Joint Tenants.
- The Landlord giving notice to the Tenant, which is only possible using one of the 18 grounds for eviction set out in schedule 3 of the Act. This can happen either:-
  - By the Landlord giving the Tenant a Notice to Leave stating one or more of the eviction grounds, and the Tenant choosing to leave. In this case, the tenancy will come to an end on the day specified in the Notice to Leave, or the day on which the Tenant actually leaves the Let Property, whichever is the later.

or:-

- By the Landlord giving the Tenant a Notice to Leave stating one or more of the eviction grounds and then, if the Tenant chooses not to leave on the day after the notice period expires, subsequently obtaining an eviction order from the Tribunal on the stated eviction ground(s). In this case, the tenancy will come to an end on the date specified in the eviction order.

The Landlord can bring the tenancy to an end only if one of the 18 grounds for eviction apply. If the Landlord serves a Notice to Leave on the Tenant, he or she must specify which eviction ground(s) is being used, and give the reasons why they believe this eviction ground applies.

If the Landlord applies to the Tribunal for an eviction order, the Tribunal will ask the Landlord to provide supporting evidence for any eviction ground(s) being used.

The amount of notice a Landlord must give the Tenant will depend on which eviction ground is being used by the Landlord and how long the Tenant has lived in the Let Property.

The Landlord must give the Tenant at least 14 days' notice if, on the day the Tenant receives the Notice to Leave, the Tenant has not been entitled to occupy the Let Property for six months or less, or the eviction ground (or grounds) that the Landlord is stating is one or more of the following:

- is not occupying the Let Property as his or her only or principal home
- has breached the tenancy agreement
- is in rent arrears for three or more consecutive months
- has a relevant criminal conviction
- has engaged in relevant antisocial behaviour
- has associated with a person who has a relevant conviction or has engaged in antisocial behaviour.

The Landlord must give the Tenant at least 84 days' notice if, on the date the Tenant receives the Notice to Leave, the Tenant has been entitled to occupy the Let Property for six months and the Notice to Leave does not rely exclusively (or on one or more) of the eviction grounds already mentioned in this paragraph.

The Landlord must secure repossession only by lawful means and must comply with all relevant legislation affecting private residential tenancies.

SCHEDULE 3 TO THE ACT – EVICTION GROUNDS

Schedule 3 sets out the 18 grounds under which a Landlord may seek eviction.

Mandatory Eviction Grounds

If the Tribunal is satisfied that any of the mandatory eviction grounds exists, it must issue an eviction order. The eight mandatory grounds are:

- The Landlord intends to sell the Let Property for market value within three months of the Tenant ceasing to occupy it.
- Let Property to be sold by the mortgage lender.
- The Landlord intends to refurbish and this will entail significantly disruptive works to, or in relation to, the Let Property.
- The Landlord intends to live in the Let Property as his or her only or principal home.
- The Landlord intends to use the Let Property for a purpose other than providing a person with a home.
- The Let Property is held for a person engaged in the work of a religious denomination as a residence from which the duties of such person are to be performed; the Let Property has previously been used for that purpose; and the Let Property is required for that purpose.
- The Tenant is not occupying the Let Property as his or her only or principal home or has abandoned the Let Property.
- After the start date of the tenancy the Tenant is convicted of using, or allowing the use of, the Let Property for an immoral or illegal purpose, or is convicted of an imprisonable offence committed in or in the locality of the Let Property. An application must usually be made within 12 months of the Tenant's conviction.

Discretionary Eviction Grounds

Even if the Tribunal is satisfied that a discretionary ground exists, it will still have discretion on whether to issue an eviction order. The eight discretionary grounds are:

- A member of the Landlord's family intends to live in the Let Property as his or her only or principal home.
- The tenancy was entered into on account of the Tenant having an assessed need for community care and the Tenant has since been assessed as no longer having such need.
- The Tenant has breached the tenancy agreement – this excludes the payment of rent.
- The Tenant has acted in an antisocial manner to another person and the Tribunal is satisfied that it is reasonable to issue an eviction order given the nature of the behaviour and who it was in relation to or where it occurred. The application must usually be made within 12 months of the antisocial behaviour occurring.
- The Tenant is associating in the Let Property with a person who has a relevant conviction or who has engaged in relevant antisocial behaviour. A relevant conviction is a conviction which, if it was the Tenant's, would entitle the Tribunal to issue an eviction order. Relevant antisocial behaviour means behaviour which, if engaged in by the Tenant, would entitle the Tribunal to issue an eviction order. The application must usually be made within 12 months of the conviction or antisocial behaviour.

- Landlord registration has been refused or revoked by a local authority.
- House in Multiple Occupation (HMO) license revoked by the local authority.
- Overcrowding statutory notice in respect of the Let Property has been served on the Landlord.

Eviction grounds with both a mandatory and a discretionary strand

These two eviction grounds have both a mandatory and a discretionary strand, so the Tribunal will have discretion over whether to issue an eviction order in some circumstances, but not in others:

- The Tenant is in rent arrears. (This ground is mandatory if, for three or more months, the Tenant has been in arrears of rent and on the day the Tribunal considers the case the arrears are at least one month's rent. The Tribunal must be satisfied that the arrears are not due to a delay or failure in the payment of a relevant benefit. This ground is discretionary if the Tenant has been in arrears of rent for three or more months, and on the first day that the Tribunal considers the case, the arrears are less than one month's rent and the Tribunal is satisfied that it is reasonable on this basis to issue an eviction order. In deciding whether it is reasonable to evict the Tenant will consider whether the Tenant being in arrears is due to a delay or failure in the payment of a relevant benefit.)
- The tenancy was granted to an employee and the Tenant is no longer an employee. (This ground is mandatory if the application for eviction was made within 12 months of the Tenant ceasing to be - or failing to become - an employee and discretionary if the application is made after the 12 months has elapsed.)

The Landlord has the right to remove all of his or her belongings when the Tenancy ends. The Tenant's belongings may include personal effects, foodstuffs and consumables, belongings and any other contents brought in to the Let Property by the Tenant.

AT THE END OF TENANCY: upon being given reasonable notice, the tenant shall permit the landlord to enter upon the accommodation and where required place a notice board for re-letting or sale and permit persons to view the accommodation accompanied by the agent for the purpose of such re-letting or sale.

The tenant is obligated at the end of the tenancy to arrange with the landlord or his agent an end of tenancy inspection appointment, and:

(i) To clean or pay for the cleaning of the property, its fixtures and fittings including the cleaning of any carpets, curtains (including nets) and any bedding or additional linen and upholstery which have become soiled, stained or marked during the tenancy and provide, upon request, receipts to demonstrate such compliance with this clause.

(ii) To remove all tenant's refuse and rubbish from the property and properly dispose of it in receptacles outside the property provided by the local council for the purpose of waste collection, or arrange with the local council for a special collection to uplift excessive or heavy rubbish for disposal.

(iii) To return all sets of keys (including additional sets copied by the tenants) on the last day of the tenancy. Please note that failure to do so can result in additional charges being levied by the landlord or his agent until such time as the landlord had taken possession of such keys.

(iv) To remove all personal belongings of the tenants including food stuff on or before the last day of the tenancy.

(v) To ensure that all items of furnishing belonging to the landlord are returned to their original place in accordance with the inventory as agreed at the beginning of the tenancy.

(vi) To provide the landlord or his agent with a forwarding address at the end of the tenancy for ease of administration and communication between both parties including the ease of return of the security deposit.

The tenant will be responsible for meeting all reasonable removal and/or storage charges when items are left in the accommodation. The landlord will notify the tenant at his last known address. If the items are not collected within 14 days, the landlord will consider them to be abandoned and shall dispose of the items. The tenant shall be liable for the reasonable costs of disposal which may be deducted from any funds arising from the sale of the items or the deposit.

25. CONTENTS AND CONDITION

The Tenant agrees that the signed Inventory Report, which will be supplied to the Tenant no later than the start date of the tenancy, is a full and accurate record of the contents and condition of the Let Property at the start date of the tenancy. The Tenant has a period of 7 days from the start date of the tenancy (set out above in the 'start date of the tenancy' section) to ensure that the Inventory and Record of Condition is correct and either 1) to tell the Landlord of any discrepancies in writing, after which the Inventory and Record of Condition will be amended as appropriate or 2) to take no action and, after the 7 day period has expired, the Tenant shall be deemed to be fully satisfied with the terms.

The Tenant agrees to replace or repair (or, at the option of the Landlord, to pay the reasonable cost of repairing or replacing) any of the contents which are destroyed, damaged, removed or lost during the tenancy, fair wear and tear excepted, where this was caused wholly or negligently by the Tenant, anyone living with the Tenant or an invited visitor to the Property (see clause above on 'Reasonable care'). Items to be replaced by the Tenant will be replaced by items of equivalent value and quality.

Any cleaning and repairs required by the tenant at the start of the tenancy needs to be reported in writing within 48 hours of the start of lease. The landlord may deduct any cleaning costs for which the tenant is liable under this clause from the deposit. (Refer to section 11).

26. LOCAL AUTHORITY TAXES/CHARGES

The Landlord will notify the local authority that the Tenant is responsible for paying the council tax and any other associated charges. Tenant should notify the local authority too that Tenant is responsible for the council tax and any other associated charges.

Unless exempt, the Tenant will be responsible for payment of any council tax and water and sewerage charges, or any local tax which may replace this. The Tenant will advise the local authority of the start date and end date of the tenancy and apply for any exemptions or discounts that they may be eligible for.

27. UTILITIES

The Tenant undertakes to ensure that the accounts for the supply to the Let Property of [gas/electricity/telephone/TV licence/internet/broadband] are entered in his or her name with the relevant supplier. The Tenant agrees to pay promptly all sums that become due for these supplies relative to the period of the tenancy.

The Tenant agrees to make the necessary arrangements with the suppliers to settle all accounts for these services at the end of the tenancy.

The Tenant has the right to change supplier if he or she pays the energy supplier directly for gas or electricity. This includes if the Tenant has a prepayment meter. The Tenant agrees to inform the Landlord if they choose to change the utilities supplier, and to provide the Landlord with details of the new supplier.

If the Tenant allows the meter to be changed from or to a prepayment meter during the tenancy, the Tenant is responsible for the reasonable costs of changing the meter back over at the end of the tenancy, unless the Landlord writes it to remain.

28. ALTERATIONS

The Tenant agrees not to make any alterations to the Let Property, its fixtures or fittings, nor to carry out any internal or external works without the prior written consent of the Landlord.

Any request for adaptations, auxiliary aids or services under section 37 of the Equality Act 2010 or section 2 of the Housing (Scotland) Act 2006 must be made in writing to the Landlord and the owners of the common parts, where appropriate. Consent for alterations requested under this legislation should not be unreasonably withheld. If no consent is given for the adaptations you may appeal to the Tribunal in relation to section 52 (or sheriff court in relation to section 37) within 6 months of being notified of the decision. Before doing this, you may find it helpful to discuss your circumstance with your local Citizens Advice Bureau, Shelter and or the local authority for the area where the Let Property is situated.

COMMON PARTS

In the case of a Let Property, or any other Let Property having common parts the Tenant agrees, in conjunction with the other proprietors / occupiers, to sweep and clean the common stairway and to co-operate with other proprietors/properties in keeping the garden, back green or other communal areas clean and tidy.

30. PRIVATE GARDEN

The Tenant will maintain the garden in a reasonable manner. The tenant must not lop, cut down or remove or otherwise injure any trees shrubs or plants growing upon the accommodation nor alter the general character of the garden with the exception of normal pruning, etc. The tenant agrees to cultivate the garden in a reasonable manner throughout the tenancy according to the season of the year. Where the tenant fails to maintain the garden in a reasonable manner and the landlord incurs costs in bringing the garden up to a reasonable standard at the termination of the tenancy, the tenant will be liable for said costs which may be deducted from the tenant's deposit.

31. ROOF

The Tenant is not permitted to access the roof without the Landlord's written consent, except in the case of an emergency.

32. BINS AND RECYCLING

The Tenant agrees to dispose of or recycle all rubbish in an appropriate manner and at the appropriate time. Rubbish must not be placed anywhere in the common stair at any time. The Tenant must take reasonable care to ensure that the rubbish is properly bagged or recycled in the appropriate container. If rubbish is normally collected from the street, on the day of collection it should be put out by the time specified by the local authority. Rubbish and recycling containers should be returned to their storage places as soon as possible after it has been collected. The Tenant must comply with any local arrangements for the disposal of large items.

33. STORAGE

Nothing belonging to the Tenant or anyone living with the Tenant or a visitor may be left or stored in the common stair if it causes a fire or safety hazard, or nuisance or annoyance to neighbours.

34. DANGEROUS SUBSTANCES including liquid petroleum gas

The Tenant agrees to the no storage of any petroleum and/or gas, including liquid petroleum gas, lawnmowers, garden appliances (mowers etc.), barbecues or other commonly used household gases or appliances. The Tenant must not store, keep or bring into the Let Property or any store, shed or garage any other flammable liquids, explosives or explosive gases which might reasonably be considered to be a fire hazard or otherwise dangerous to the Let Property or its occupants or the neighbours or the neighbouring property.

35. PETS

The Tenant must not keep any animals or pets in the Let Property without the prior written consent of the Landlord. Any pet (where permitted) will be kept under supervision and control to ensure that it does not cause deterioration in the condition of the Let Property or common areas, nuisance either to neighbours or in the locality of the Let Property.

If the tenant fails to exert reasonable supervision and control, the landlord shall be entitled to withdraw his consent and request immediate removal of the pet. The tenant undertakes to meet the cost of any damage or soiling to the accommodation caused by the pet including but not limited to de-infestation where required.

36. SMOKING

The Tenant agrees not to smoke, or to permit visitors to smoke tobacco or any other substance, in the Let Property, without the prior written consent of the Landlord.

The Tenant will not smoke in stairwells or any other common parts.

If smoking does incur in the property the tenant will be responsible for any reasonable costs or rectification of any damage caused or for any appropriate cleaning.

37. ADDITIONAL TENANCY TERMS

Additional tenancy terms

(a) Late rent payments

The Landlord will be entitled to pursue the Tenant for any reasonable costs incurred as a result of the Tenant's failure to pay rent on time including but not limited to any charges, arrears, interest or any reasonable costs incurred in pursuing the Tenant for payment of unpaid rent. The recovery of reasonable legal costs and expenses, if determined as appropriate, could also be a result of failure to pay the Tenant.

(b) State benefit payments

The Tenant is liable to reimburse the Landlord or his Agent any amount which the Landlord or his Agent is required to pay to the local authority or the Department of Work and Pensions in respect of Housing Benefit, Local Housing Allowance or Universal Credit which the Landlord or his Agent has paid direct to the Landlord or his Agent on behalf of the Tenant, and accepted in good faith, but which is subsequently shown to have been paid incorrectly or as a result of fraud, error or ineligibility of the Tenant.

(c) Deposit deductions

The Landlord will be entitled to make deductions from the deposit in relation to the following:-

1. Any damage caused to the Let Property, fixtures and fittings or any furniture provided as part of the Tenancy, other than the exception of fair wear and tear;
  2. Any costs incurred in replacing any items detailed on the ingoing inventory which have been lost, broken, or have disappeared during the Tenancy Agreement;
  3. Any costs incurred in carrying out any redecoration work in the Let Property where required due to damage caused by the Tenant and/or due to the Tenant having carried out redecoration work without the prior written consent of the Landlord;
Any costs incurred in bringing the garden back to an acceptable standard at the termination of the Tenancy Agreement;
  5. Any interest incurred due to the Tenant's late payments of rent or administrative or bank charges incurred by cheques not being met;
- Any cleaning/removal charges arising from the Let Property not being properly maintained;
Any amounts of rent, which remain unpaid
Any other costs arising from the Tenant's failure to fulfil the conditions of this Tenancy Agreement.

(d) Prohibition on removing items

The Tenant must not remove any of the fixtures, fittings or any items specified in the inventory from the Let Property or store them in alternative premises without obtaining the prior written consent of the Landlord. Where such consent is granted, the Tenant must ensure that any items are stored safely without damage or deterioration and at the end of the Tenancy Agreement are returned to the places described in the said inventory or as found at the commencement of the Tenancy Agreement.

(e) Chimney sweeping

The Tenant must pay for the sweeping of all working chimneys (if any) and ensure that these are swept regularly during the Tenancy Agreement and particularly during the last week of the Tenancy Agreement and to produce to the Landlord receipted bills on the last day of the Tenancy Agreement.

(f) Use of adhesives

The Tenant agrees not to apply any adhesives, sticky tape or other sticky materials to the internal or external walls of the Let Property.

(g) Condensation

The Tenant undertakes to take all reasonable steps to adequately heat and ventilate the Let Property in order to help prevent condensation. Where such condensation may occur, the Tenant must take care to properly wipe down and clean surfaces as required from time to time to stop the build-up of mould growth or damage to the Let Property, its fixtures and fittings.

(h) Burglary, break-in etc.

The Tenant agrees to promptly notify the police and the Landlord or Agent of the occurrence of any burglary, break-in or attempted break-in.

(i) Reinstatement and deprivation of occupancy

The Landlord's repairing obligations under this Tenancy Agreement shall not be construed as requiring the Landlord to rebuild or reinstate the Let Property in the case of destruction or damage by fire or by tempest, flood or other unavoidable accident. Further the Landlord will not be liable to the Tenant for the temporary deprivation of the occupancy of the Let Property by reason of existing leakage or failure of gas, water and oil pipes or the choking, stoppage or overflow thereof or the breaking or breakdown of electrical appliances from any cause or source whatsoever.

(j) Securing the Let Property

The Tenant must take adequate precautions to lock the Let Property, including its external doors and windows, locked and secured, and any burglar alarm set, when the Property is empty.

(k) Retention of keys by landlord

The Landlord will retain a set of keys in order for the Landlord to obtain a duplicate set in the event of theft or loss or in the event that the Tenant gives express permission for the Landlord, or his appointed Agent/tradesmen, to gain access to the Let Property for repairs. Such access will only be gained with the express permission of the Tenant, other than in an emergency. The Landlord will keep such keys in a secure place and will be directly accountable for their safekeeping.

(l) Replacement of keys

In the event that the Tenant loses keys for the Let Property, or fails to return keys at the end of the Tenancy Agreement, the Tenant shall be required to meet the reasonable costs of replacing keys and changing locks.

(m) Gas appliances

The Tenant must not bring into the Let Property any gas appliances without the express permission of the Landlord. The Tenant must ensure that any such appliances are safe to use and are properly connected to the appropriate gas work in the Let Property by a suitably qualified Gas Safe registered engineer and must immediately stop using and remove any such gas appliance which is, or becomes known to be, unsafe or dangerous to either the occupants or the Let Property.

(n) Overloading electrical circuits

The Tenant undertakes to take care not to cause an overload of the electrical circuits by the inappropriate use of multi socket electrical adaptors or extension cables when connecting appliances to the mains electrical system.

(o) Notices delivered to the Let Property

The Tenant undertakes to, as quickly as is practical after receipt, forward to the Landlord or his Agent any formal or legal notices or orders delivered to the Let Property by a third party which relate to, or might significantly affect, the Let Property, its boundaries or adjacent properties.

(p) Abandoned belongings

The Tenant will be responsible for meeting all reasonable removal and/or storage charges incurred by the Landlord when belongings are left in the Let Property. The Landlord will remove said belongings and store them for a maximum of 14 days. The Landlord will notify the Tenant at his last known address. If the belongings are not collected within 14 days, the Landlord will consider same to be abandoned and will dispose of the items. The Tenant will be liable for the reasonable costs of disposal which may be deducted from any funds arising from the sale of the belongings or the deposit.

(q) Data sharing

The Landlord and Agent may share details about the performance of obligations under this Tenancy Agreement by the Landlord and Tenant, past, present and future known addresses of the parties, with each other, with credit and reference providers for referencing purposes and rental decisions, with utility and water companies, local authority council tax and state benefit departments, mortgage lenders, to help prevent dishonesty, for administrative and accounting purposes, or for occasional debt tracing and fraud prevention.

(r) Testing smoke/heat detectors

The Tenant will be responsible for testing the smoke and heat detectors once a week to ensure that they are in working order. The Tenant must inform the Landlord or Agent immediately if they identify any faults with the detectors. Regular checks on the detectors will also be carried out by the Landlord or Agent.

(s) IMPORTANT

This tenancy agreement contains the terms and obligations of the tenancy, sets out the promises made by the landlord to the tenant and by the tenant to the landlord. All promises will be legally binding once the tenancy agreement has been signed by both parties and then dated. You should read it carefully to ensure it contains everything you want and nothing that you are not prepared to agree to. Whilst every attempt has been made to complete this tenancy agreement using plain and intelligible language, it inevitably contains some legal terms and references. If either party does not understand this tenancy agreement, or anything in it, it is strongly recommended that you ask for an explanation before signing it. You might consider consulting a solicitor, Citizens Advice Bureau or housing advice centre. Help with all or part of the cost of legal advice or assistance may be available under the legal aid legislation. If the First Tier Tribunal (F.I.T) decides that all or part of the Tenancy agreement is invalid or unenforceable, the rest of the tenancy agreement will still be valid and binding on all parties.
